THE EVENING STAR. Along the grassy slope I sit,
And dream of other years;
My heart is full of soft regrets.

My eves of tender tears. The wild bees hummed about the spot, The sheep-bells tinkled far, Last year when Alice sat with me leneath the evening star.

The same sweet star is o'er me now, Around the same soft hours, the thee molders in the dust With all the las year's flowers.

I sic alone, and only hear The wild bees on the steep, And distant bells that seem to float From out the folds of St.

-Biehard Henry Stoddard.

Proposed Yazoo City and Jackson Railroad.

then she now enjoys. What our commerce principally needs is more people to sell to. We have merchants, northern railway confit they wished to do so. nections, and every facility for doing a large One speaker, Wednesday night, expressed questions must be told in the coarse parlance ton and other shipments here for sale; instead of passing through to New Orleans by all the railroads in the State. Therefore of the town as a personal grievance. And can in that way be done. yet from an impartial stand-point the rail-roads are not to blame for the refusal. We give us a railroad, horse and buggy, diamond ask one or both roads to reduce northern rates some 50 per cent.; and are only in the attitude of petitioners, because we have neither recompensing inducement to offer up alternative recompension. nor alternate to threaten. If they should will give it to us-we can afford it-so let accede to our demands, they give up 50 per cent of what they could certainly get with-need other outlets as well as inlets for busi and if we do not now help them come here ness, and this Yazoo Road promises the only probable relief in that way. For connectant and the probable relief in that way. For connectant and the probable relief in that way. For connectant could easily be made with the station only, for the rest of her days.

BUSINESS. Greenville Road. The Natchez Road could give us relief if it was a competitor; but it s more than probable it will pool the busis ness with the other roads as soon as it reaches here, and we are then no better off A Further Fusion of Greenbackers and than before. The Yazoo Road will belong to Jackson and Yazoo City; because unless they build it, it won't be built, and own- PORTLAND, Sipt. 21.—The Greenback above, up Deer Creek, the Tallahatchie and A. White presided. He denounced Gen. Sunflower rivers, and all these boats make Fifield, and said an understanding was enmoney for themselves, while bringing an tered into to divide the electoral ticket, and immense trade to Vicksburg, besides carry- urged carrying it out. ing thousands of bales of cotton destined for New Orleans, which at Vicksburg they turn over to Col. E. Richardson's mammoth "Pool Line" of boats that take it to ocrats.

This is the magnificent trade our little tested. narrow gauge road will tap, and it will | Elliot King moved to accept the report turn into our town a large proportion of and resolution, and to name a joint electorthe wealth that now makes a city of Vicks- al ticket.

If we build this road cannot we say to This was received with applause and his the N. O., St. L. and C. R. R., "we want a es. tity per cent, reduction on present Eastern | The speaker made an appeal for a fair rates, and as quid pro quo we will haul on hearing, and argued against the Fusion; our road the through cotton now going to that there were thousands of Greenbacker New Orleans by boat, and will turn it over in the State who voted for the rest of the to you here. If you don't give us the rate ticket with Plaisted, who will not vote the boats may continue to take it as now." The Fusion electors protested against give That road would make money by accepting, ing away the future Greenback party for and we could then compete with New Orleens and Vicksburg as a market for East- back candidate and platform that carried burg's landing far down the river has enfreight costs from river points to Vicksburg, there was considerable opposition. The fo that St. Louis freight can now go there by rail as cheap as by boat. Being fifty miles and another railroad nearer St. Louis, and possessing an independent line to Green-dented in the history of the State, and the ville we can secure as low incoming freights election of our representation in Congress and compete with Vicksburg in the sale of is an unquestionable indorsement of our

Vaughn's. With the increased population favor of the national principles, which will said: If their own State faith and credit is er and mother, with their children, named Vaughn's. With the increased population that would certainly follow increased trade, Alderman Spengler would soon change his nice little "Up Town Hotel" into a handsome four or five story one that would respond to the national principles, which will be responded to by every State in the Union; that the action of the State committee remains which were the means, the commending an arrangement with the Demorphism of the national principles, which will not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what in their hands would be the fate of liam, Margaret, John, and Absalom, were commending an arrangement with the Demorphism of the national principles, which will not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what in their bands would be the fate of liam, Margaret, John, and Absalom, were commending an arrangement with the Demorphism of the national principles, which will not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what in their bands would be the fate of liam, Margaret, John, and Absalom, were commended to by every State in the Union; which were the means, the living in or near Albany, N. Y. The death of the parents following close the one upon that would responsible to the responded to by every State in the Union; which were the means, the living in or near Albany, N. Y. The death of the parents following close the one upon that would responsible to the responded to by every State in the Union; which were the fate of their ages, Catherine, William, Margaret, John, and Absalom, were the means, the living in the respondence of their ages, Catherine, with the Southern leaders, what is their own State lath and credit is not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what is their own State lath and credit is not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what is their own State lath and credit is not inviolate with the Southern leaders, what is their own State lath and credit is not inviolate with the Southern leaders, which were the means, the limit is the comment of the state of the parents of the parents of the parents of the parents of the s some four or five story one that would remind old Jacksonians of days long ago; elections was expedient, and the National while the Edwards House wouldn't need other than its "lay over" guests to fill its

As stated above, it is generally conceded identify performed by the conceded would be inside. The boys without home attachments of that the road would benefit the town, and Watts as candidates for Electors at large, and Democratic ascendancy in all branches of home influences to restrain them, wander that the road would benefit the town, and I think I have shown where the benefit is to come from; but there is a great diversity of views in town as to who will receive the benefit. I am so well satisfied of the truth of the statement that everything which benefits a town benefit the town, and benefit a targe, and John J. Turner, Benjamin Bunker, Charles the government is deeper rooted than any measure within the scope of popular questions. Statesmen abroad talk of the balance of power, and changing the map of Europe. These sayings mean not much more than might easily occur here without the country. John was the only one whose tions. Statesmen abroad talk of the balance of popular questions. Statesmen abroad talk of the balance of power, and changing the map of Europe. These sayings mean not much more than might easily occur here without the country. John was the only one whose town and the power and the power through increased trade, and that comes the convention adjourned.

The course of the Democracy regarding the unchant's hands first. But PORTLAND, ME, Sept. 21.—At the adthe same argument could be used to prove jourment of the Congress Hall convention his remarks upon the subject the speaker the same argument could be used to prove that the merchants should now pay the expenses of our city government—keep up the streets and roads—maintain the courts and jails and charities, and pay all the costs of the existence of this town. Because with few exceptions of State and United States officers, the fown and everybody in it through the merchants. We could argue through the merchants. We could argue through the merchants. We could argue the streets of the trade that comes to us now through the merchants. We could argue the streets officers, the fown and everybody in the few exceptions of State and United States officers, the fown and everybody in the few exceptions of the trade that comes to us now through the merchants. We could argue the fellowing: "For the enlight of the same argument could be used to prove that the merchants and payed the following: "For the enlight of the free delegates voted. The whole anti-fusion through the merchants, being responsible for the trade that comes to us now through the merchants, being responsible for the trade that comes to us now through the merchants, being responsible for the trade that comes to make the strength was claimed as traight Greenback as too conform to the reactionary notions and dogmas, prejudices and interests, what may dome the subject the speaker said: With the courts revolutionized to conform to the reactionary notions and dogmas, prejudices and interests, what may be the fate of the questions affecting commerce among the several States? The Whidden, J. F. Hilton, Thomas G. Eurden, We have learned that the mission of Gen. Martin to New York to negotiate the sale of the fate of the questions affecting commerce among the several States? The whole anti-fusion the first mortgage bonds of the Natchez and Jackson Rallroad.

New Era.]

The Funny Man Done For.

New Era.]

We have learned that the mission of Gen. Martin to New York to negotiate the sale of the first mortgage bonds of the sale of the first mortgage bonds of the sale of the first mark unon it States officers, the town and everybody in it lives off of the trade that comes to us now through the merchants. We could argue that the merchants, being responsible for Jackson's having any trade at all, and therefore for our living here, should pay all the expenses incident to such existence—even to the education of our children and the support of our churches. With equal reason the poor man without work could go to a grocery Saturday night and state he had no money. If this wasn't a town he wouldn't be here—all the money comes to town through their hands. They are responsible for its being a town in which he could be—consequently must pay his expenses. Therefore the grocer will please let him have enough provisions for his family's use and take the bill to one of the banks for his pay. Don't you think when he looks on the full paper bags in the banket of a

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1880.

wherever the way is clear. There is a whisky rebellion now in several States, and the officers of the law are powerless to sup-ly told of the wondrous Democratic econospecie payments was a transient achievement. The credit of it belong to the same will look back with grateful admiration,

The interest charge has been reduced one-

REUNITED AFTER SIXTY YEARS.

On Saturday the 21st of August, a stran-

Natchez and Jackson Railroad.

ial, industrial, and financial interests-shall sation with Mr. Woodworth, asking him be under the management and protection of several questions, to which Mr. Woodworth, hose who are its chief creators and owners, supposing him to be a sewing machine or laborer customer next him, and then gazes into his own empty basket he will understand that some one besides the "merchants" more reasonable customer has just handed the grocer to the hands of his employer-a contractor. Through his hands, to his principal a prosperous doctor erecting a house. Through his, to a sick lawyer who got it from some merchant for services; and A FURIOUS TIRADE AGAINST THE SOUTH. the merchant made that $5 out of trade.

follars brought here in this way?

The benefits are directly through in- mulating money. of the State, and will place Jackson in of their financial capacity. Any one in- all the Southern States alike, without exproximity to as much if not more trade formed as to Jackson's wealth, is aware that ception or doubt, are relied upon to count hashness; and yet it is only necessary to a popular wish that we could make some of of the day that he waves the bloody shirt. passalong our principal street, in this, the the wealth in town which does not pay the Senator denounced the proposed count taxes, share the burden of this road with in some of the Southern States founded on beginning of our business season, and see us. But the practical question arises as to the last census, and then read Gen. Grant's drays idle on the street corners—streets with searcely any but town people on them large stores with fine stocks, and few enough customers to turn an energetic proprietor's curity, and also avoid taxation thereby. If on to say that the South controls the Demohair gray, to comprehend that as a business they voluntarily sacrifice some 5 per cent. cratic party, and that in Congress the Southplace Jackson is now completed, unless per annum income possible, to the attain- ern members hold absolute sway. Should smething is done to secure new fields for trade. That this is the only untried chance for us, all know; and that this trade is valunide, the growth and prosperity of Vieks-burg proves. It is what has given that place its present importance; while much of Canton, Madison, Goodman, Bolton and Edwards is due to it. A his place. Would you pay taxes on your Southern end of the Democratic party must marrow guage road would particularly property if the law didn't require it, and the be to the Northern end as a locomotive is to heacht us, because it can carry freight and taxes were not used for your benefit? Then a tender—as a horse is to a cart. This is as these men can't be reached. None but plain as any truth in gravitation or arithminating, it will induce the stoppage of cot. very rich men buy United States bonds, and metic. The South has control of all the other stations. But we all know what a half of the big money in town, but are not more than half are Southern. During the signal failure has been our efforts to obtain available for railroad purposes. It can be two years in which this absolute power in freight rates from railroads passing here. discovered in a few hours, if they are. Let both houses has been so lodged the existence

Of course we would all like some one to out extortion, and gain nothing in its place. years, supposing the town's assessment does not increase within that time. If it does, It is new to us, but is business they have then the pro rata cost is proportionately less, and if the road does not benefit us all more than that amount, it is certainly not the road we think it. Vicksburg is agitating the subject of sceams they know as well as we do that building it to herself. The Yazoo people want to get out to a railroad somewhere, they will take their road elsewhere. Then Jackson will deserve to remain a railroad convention to nominate electors met this Vicksburg has packets to Yazoo Uity and afternoon, 465 delegates were present. C.

MAINE POLITICS.

J. B. Chase, amid great excitement pro-burg, and supports these numerous large | Chase made a motion to amend by nomi nating seven straight Greenbackers.

the State. Rev. Alvah Stout, F. M. Plais-Again, the necessary change of Vicks- ted and others advocated the Fusion, after principles by the State of Maine. We feel The road would likewise bring all the passenger traffic of that region through this town. It now goes through Vicksburg and shall show an overwhelming majority in action and agree to support at the Presooms.

As stated above, it is generally conceded idential election Solon Chase and Samuel Democratic accordance in all broaders.

Western and Samuel Democratic accordance in all broaders.

The boys without home attachments or

RADICAL POLITICS.

is benefitted by the trade of the town? For The Radical Side of the Presidential Election, as set forth by Senator Sectionalism Rampant.

This $5 of trade has already paid a lawyer's. New York, Sept. 17.—The Academy a doctor's, a contractor's bill, and bought a Music was crowded to overflowing to night, yet it is contended that the merchant should meeting. Shortly before 8 o clock, Senator but does not every man, woman, and child, Jay, ex-Governor Dennison, of Ohio, and white and colored, in this town, with the Hou. Levy Morton, and, as the party admilder will follow in the wake. The native of officials above and and the surface of exception of officials above, eat and wear vanced upon the stage simultaneously, ollars brought here in this way? cheers arose from every part of the house, Why has Jackson a population of over and handkerchiefs and hats were thrown Entropy Clarifors Clarifors: Feeling a deep in 4000, while Byram hasn't as many hundred? In the progress and prosperity of our Simply because her trade is larger, and the most fashionable churches that officer.

In the direct control of the Rev. G. H. Higgins, and the street of the Rev. G. H. Higgins, and the street in the progress and prosperity of our Simply because her trade is larger, and the most fashionable churches that officer.

In the direct control of the Rev. G. H. Higgins, and the street control of the Rev. G. H. Higgins, and th town, I beg your indulgence to express a few views that may not have occurred to all of your local readers in the matter of the longest property of our than Jacks and said with the maintenance of specie payments. Which possess a few views that may not have occurred to all of your local readers in the matter of the longest appliance.) Hon, Hamilton Fish her south In record to the assertion all of your local readers in the matter of the proposed Railroad to Yazoo City.

How that it more trade is brought longed applause.) Hon. Hamilton Fish which possess Democratic field, especially was elected Chairman, and in a brief speech in the South. In regard to the section of the get a living here, that more people will come, introduced Senator Conkling, who was that Southern was closed by the Constitution.

The section of the possess Democratic field, especially in the South. In regard to the South. The section of the possess Democratic field, especially in the South. In the South in the South. The section of the possess Democratic field, especially in the South. In the South in t Though all the speakers at the recent citing man knows that the more population a forward. Conkling said: "There can be no doubt.

> sons for going slow; many expected bills or 3.65 per cent bonds. This all looks pret-bave not been introduced! Many that have ty well—very well by the side of the last against such occasional opposition as to o strike the veto power is in the Democrat-Whatever the solid cancus desires will be the Mississippi river, and upon this point Mr. Conkling said: The river commerce of the Southern Mississippi is regarded as a great topic of interest, as a great safeguard nd an assurance against purposes of secet up for southern influence in national thrown upon him, there seems to me no dlairs. The theory so far is true. The tide of reason to doubt. Of General Arthur it can in all ages has been lines of latitude, ot longitude. Rivers and mountains on know him, and all who know him know a be continent run north and south; men high-souled honorable man, honorable in bridge and tunnel them, and move east and every position in which he ever stood; a west. The construction of a railway has revolutionized traffic and transportation. If character, popularity and personality of army for reasons which were still in force. ranscontinental movement is the lakes and publican cause, General Arthur will add ability than I did. great cities have grasped this vast carrying rade, and propel and direct it. Boston, hiladelphia and Baltimore at the east, and t. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati at the west command machinery and outlets, and nited States reach the markets of the Richmond (Va, Dispatch.) world; and through which the merchandise of Europe is brought here and distri-buted. Could science deepen the mouth of the Mississippi, the Great Eastern could Woodworth, a worthy farmer, who owns oad at the wharves of the Crescent City; the place formerly the property of Lewis the improvement could no more arrest or livert the movement of commerce east and about four miles from this city. The stranvest than it would control the tides of the ger had the appearance of a well-to-do ea or change the course of the stars. Sta- farmer, and was evidently not familiar with istics were given locating the bulk and our localities. He, however, soon found ubstance of the nation. The speaker said:

Mr. Woodworth at a stable on Eighteenth street hitching up his team and getting whether our substantial fabric-commer- ready to go home. He entered into convergrove this assertion, and said these facts are

r should it be handed over to the sway of lightning rod agent, returned evasive nose whose share in it is small, and whose answers. Presently, however, becoming xperience, antecedents, theories and prac- more earnest in his manner, he startled his hearer by remarking, "I am going home with you to-night. Although you don't know me I know you. I am your brother Wil-Republican vote in the South by fraud, liam." Mr. Woodworth was dumbfounded at ruelty, deviltry, force and tissue ballots, this remark and disposed to be distrustful but nd repeats what he said in the Senate, that his brother recalled incidents of their childthe Democratic party would have to-day no | hood which were distinctly remembered by majority in either house of Congress except him, though he was only three years old at for elections denominated and decided by the time, and convinced him that he who violence and fraud. In regard to a repudi-ation of the Southern debts, the Senator It seems that about 65 years ago their fathothers not in commerce here, that the merchants are to be the benefitted parties and they therefore argue that the merchants' should build the road.

That the merchants will profit by it is of That the merchants will profit by a should build the road.

That the merchants will profit by it is of Congressman Ladd and others. After which course true, because the good to be derived is convention adjourned.

The course of the Democracy regarding known, claims growing out of the war, claims for refunding the war tax on cotton, and many other grave matters no man can predict. Meanwhile the army has been reduced to a skeleton, and whenever a scare, a pretense, a speek of war on the Mexican border or elsewhere can be discovered or invented, the army must be increased and filled up; filled up by whom? That depends on the approaching election. If Garfield and Arthur are chosen by the Union men, men always for the Union, to the core. If Hancock and English, and the Democratic party, get in, they will get in by men who "went with their States."

The present tariff and revenue laws are deemed very bad by the dominant element of the Domocracy; they want to change could be decause of monted men always for making in wasting in making investments incident to the present campaign. We think it a good time for our citizens to agitate the question of our city subscribing to the extension of the road can be hypothecated to secure the city against any loss.

Chicago Journal.]

The General of the United States army (Sherman) receives a salary of $13,500 per tannum. The Lieutenant-General (Sheridan) receives $11,000; Major-Generals receive $7,500, and Brigadier Generals 36,500.

them; they will change them radically, A Disputed Point of Southern History

WEEKLY CLARION.

Letter from Hon. Jefferson Davis.

press it. Recently a warrant was issued for the arrest of one Pelton, a deputy Marshal went with the posse to execute the warrant. RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 18.—The Southern In his report to the Marshal, he says Pelton Historical Society Papers of August and assembled from 25 to 50 armed men, and set him and the law at defiance. When cautioned to desist, Pelton replied, "When Hancock is elected this damn foolishness will stop." The amendments to the Contain Alabama. This gentleman was on the staff of Gen. Hardee, and stitution were, the speaker said, constantly the paper is a reply to certain criticisms of week's provision for a laborer's family. And on the occasion of the Republican mass yet it is contended that the merchant should neeting. Shortly before 8 o'clock, Senator the Democratic States, and should these pay all the cost of securing trade, because to characters of the securing trade, because to characters of the securing trade, because to characters of the securing trade, because the securing trade, tional banking system has been struck perhaps, sets at rest one and the most im-wherever a vote could be put in. This portant of the disputed points—that of the tabric of banking is new; is wrought not cause of Hardee's removal from the com-BEAUVOIR, Harrison Co., Miss.,) quently the greater is his chance for accuelection is to be no more than a farce, unless thing has been done or proposed? They teemed and affectionately remembered by have stricken some millions tax from whis- me, as is my deceased friend, the late Gen. one of the richest and best cultivated parts of the State, and will place Jackson in under duress and to cripple the government respected, and whose memory is personally in order to overthrow just and time-honored laws. What else? I do not know. It is have gone where they will know as they are said the Democracy have reduced appropriations. I do not so understand it. The claim of economy is no better than a juggle. The they served faithfully and well. The pretended saving which had been purposely left out of the regular appropriation oills came in as deficiency bills. After call upon me for that purpose. The duty is election, in face of the fact, bald and one which I cheerfully perform. The inference you draw from the state arrant as the claim is, the country is gravement in Gen. Hood's book that I held a mies, and it now begins to be stated that the conference with Gens. Stewart and S. D. resumption of specie payments was brought Lee to determine the fitness of Gen. Harden about by frugality of the Democratic Con- for his command, the propriety of his congress. If the race was to be sailed on the duct in the operations around Atlanta, is sea of fiction, the inventor of this statement justified by the text, and was no doubt de would take a cup. The resumption of red by Gen. Hood. I had, however, known Gen. Hardee too long, too intimately and in too many relaparty, and that party's future generation tions to doubt his personal or soldierly qualities. My object in the conference and whoever would know the truth about it can that for which I visited the army was to easily do so. Conkling here gave the history of our finances from the close of the pected from it in active operations against war to the passage of the resumption act, the enemy. At this day, so remote from which act he said encountered the solid the event, I cannot claim to remember any Democratic opposition in both houses, but conversation upon incidental points that was passed by the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say with cerrepeal bills were brought forward and the Democrats voted for them separately and as riders to opposition bills. Meanwhile, the riders to opposition bills. Meanwhile, the read services of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices and the control of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices and the property of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices and the property of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices and the property of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices and the property of the Republican votes. The may have occurred, but I can say what cervices are not relieved on the results of the results and Vicksburg as now on existing broad that property has no interest in the road, and of these a majority in all cases consist of world seeing that we meant to be honest early requested to be relieved; it had been Southern Senators. The same condition after all, notwithstanding the repudiation the subject of correspondence between us before my visit to the army, and my ob-Bounds roads.

February 29, 1880.

A "spirit" has recently been made by Jack on, while entertuining the hope of working its new compress in competition with city presses and thereby induce the sale of the properties and thereby induce the sale of the properties and thereby induce the sale of the discourse, and the service is but he also, having got the same condition at the South and threats in the North, and the service; but he also, having got the service; but he also, having got the service; but he subject of correspondence between us the same condition at the South and threats in the North, and the service is the service; but he also, having got the service is the south and threats in the North, and the service is the south and threats in the South and par. This was done and the debt melted finally given because of irreconcilable dif- said; and he looked over the pulpit to tance from the days of Jim Fisk, and Another startling act connected with the terence between himself and the officer where Dr. Harris was sitting.

away at the rate of $2,000,000 a month. commanding-in-chief. Among the motives which induced me to discovered in a few hours, if they are. Let the Railroad Committee make a test sub-the progressive citizen has almost regarding the progressive citizen has almost regarding the Railroad Committee make a test sub-the Railroad Committee make a test sub-t half, and when the bonds of a high interest ty well—very well by the side of the last Democratic administration (Mr. Buchan one in that army who knew him as well as been introduced have not been pressed. Democratic administration (Mr. Buchan one in that army who knew him as well as Some that have been pressed have ran an's), which increased the debt tenfold in I. He had first attracted my attention by time of peace; paid 12 per cent. interest on his good conduct and cool courage, when, i the treasury notes, and sold the 6 per cent. the early part of the war against Mexico, From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.]
20 year bonds for 80 cents on the dollar. It be, as junior captain of a squadron of drais well to add that during the last five years | goons, extricated the portion of the com of their congressional control, the Republi- mand more immediately under him from cans dismissed $120,000,000 of the annual ambuscade into which he had fallen and taxes, $31,000,000 tariff duties, and $89, saved them from impending massacre. At a later day, because of his professional ac Senator Conkling concluded as follows: complishments, I, as Secretary of War, The candidates we support, besides being Republican and largely fitted for the stations which await them, some service with we daily worked together. In his appointofficial figures of the bureau of statistics to him in Congress has made me well acquaint- ment as commandant of cadets and in his ed with General Garfield, that he has in selection for promotion in a new regiment telligence, experience and habits of mind of cavalry was manifested my appreciation The next topic discussed was the trade of which fit a man for the Presidential office. of him as a gentleman and soldier. was confirmed and increased, but never diminished. By reference to his letters That he is competent to do the duties to be ting to the appointment of Gen. Hood to the command of the army of Tennessee. seems needless here to speak. Most of you By these it is shown that Gen. Hardee was not passed over from any want of appreciation, but because he had previously declined The companion and competitor to this the candidate can add strength to the Re- His modesty put a lower estimate upon his that he still wished to be transferred to telligently, without painful effort and requiring constant renewing. some other field of duty. The unfortunate relations which had grown up between Gen. ALTHOUGH YOU DON'T KNOW ME I'M YOUR Hood and himself, and the expressed desire of both for a separation overcame my reluctance to remove Gen. Hardee from the happiness. The force and energy which troops he had commanded so long and he has put forth day by day, and hour Anne chimneys can be red.

The assignment of Gen. Hardee to an in dependent and important command, which was simultaneous with his being relieved and keener by exercise, and, although from duty with the army of the Tennessee, sufficiently evinces that my confidence in past, it is still his well-tried, true, and the wearer is perfectly comme il faut. him had not been impaired, and his conduct in that separate command tully justified higher regions.

the opinion I continued to entertain. In this connection it may be appropriate to furnish you with an extract from a letter written by me to Gen. Beauregard on From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.] the 4th of February, 1865-a period late in assume command of all the forces in the and add to it any other forces which may regret for the necessity that has occasioned We submit that pockets are a it I have endeavored to answer your inquiries 10 as to put finally at rest the supposition which any may entertain that Gen. attire for business purposes are winter dresses, and the plain will be match-Hardee, at any period of his life, had lost either my confidence or esteem. Respectfully and truly yours,

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Pint Law. The last Legislature passed a law allowing any person to sell liquor by the pint-about benefits a town benefits every one in that town, that I would not speak of that I would not speak of that feature except for some peculiar ideas I have heared expressed.

It seems to be the general impression among mechanics, professional men, and others not in commerce here, that the specifical not in commerce here.

Congressman Murch made a brief spectral to the constitution, or transcending the constitution is necessary.

Olive Logan says that the first duty violation is perhaps that the seal in the commerce here in the commerce he the corner where the gaping public cannot see them. The law must be a bad one and will have a demoralizing effect. Every cross road will have its pint grocery, and many dry goods stores will be turned into whisky saloons.—Brookhaven Ledger.

pooned this particular Horr, who is a whale

Opening the Eyes of the Negroes. From the Norfolk Landmark.

The eyes of the negroes are beginning to be opened in many places. In the local elections a great many negroes that own property vote for the Democrats, for they have something at stake in stable government, and have a lively recollection of the times when, under Republican rule, the owners of land or of anything else were so akinned by taxation that property was not worth possessing.

Extemporizing in the Pulpit.

Sunday at Home.

They make a great mistake who suppose that extempore preaching has been the law with all great preachers; in fact, we may almost go so far as to say

DEAR SIR-Yours of the 26th instant has very distinguished man to whom we new way, and deemed it an improperly that capacity he frequently drove out will Though all the speakers at the recent citline may know that the more population a general way that the goad would be of great benefit to the town, I do not think all present saw exactly where the benefit would come to the benefit would come to the the product of the control of the contr I sympathize in your desire to vindicate ing, he leaned in deep thought over the complete surprise to his partner. A warrant was issued for Monroe, chargin of the sermon after all. Binney promised that he would take the service; but he also, having got her hands back of the young gentle-Broth- it happened that several of them were er Harris, what was thirdly?" Harris among the spectators. They laughed

The Habit of Self-Control.

If there is one habit which, above all others, is deserving of cultivation, it is so much that is of value and importance in life that it may almost be said that the back. in proportion to its power does the man self with the highest parts of our na- of sight. ture, and to bring all the lower parts into subjection, or rather to draw them all upwards into harmony with the best In his various high commands during the that we know, is the one central power war between the States my estimate of him which supplies vitality to all the rest. How to develop this in the child may well absorb the energy of every parent; of every youth. Yet it is no mysteri- latter. ous or complicated path that leads to but the repeated authority of the reason | tistic and elaborate way, over the impulses, of the judgment over without fear of revolt from his appetites and passions, has within the source whose confidence he was known so fully to by hour, is not exhausted nor even diminished; on the contrary, it has increased by use and has become stronger it has already completed its work in the Woman's Pockets.

"Oh dear," sighed a young woman the course of the campaign through Eastern Georgia and South Carolina, and long after the events to which you refer: "You will lows of her new spring suit with a desperate air for some time, "I do wish the latter material forming half of the fair weather, and Providence got out of the district as defined before your departure to dressmakers would put in a pocket. Or narrow finely-plaited flounces on the the West, and, should you deem it advisa- I wish I was a man. Bob, how many underskirt, and also the facings and ble, will direct Gen. Hardee to assume the pockets have you got?" Brother Bob folds on the waist. after some seconds of profound arithmetical effort, answered with delibera-Thus it appears that in the hour of our tion tinged with sadness: "Well, let are made much more substantial than remove her hat in public and dust off the direct need I not only turned to Gen. us see, four and three is seven and four those formerly worn. In the former bald spot.—Detroit Free Press. Hardee as a soldier and a patriot, but ex- is eleven, but I mean to have another every bead is fastened so tightly that it pected of him, at the head of his old corps, to exhibit the steady courage our necessities required, and that the veteran corps under his command would emulate the deeds which had won for him the honorable times in his hat, but I can generally sobriquet of "Old Reliable." With deep get along with about a dozen pockets." From the Brooklyn Eagle.

privilege which must be opened to the old gold and prune color. Green and old sex. The inconveniences of feminine gold will vie with it in favor. sufficiently onerous without making it ed with the figured, the latter used for oysters go down easy enough. barren of pockets. Trimming is most trimming. all pockets nowadays, except that they seem to be put on wrong side out. Even the ladies' purse has to be carried combination with the new copper colors, exclaim, "Come, bub, tune up your fidin the hand, or is exposed in a shallow with which it contrasts well. outside bag with mouth gaping to the The long polonaise which will be retained Grandmother." lot box. But it will have to come, points. When it was once decided to teach When it was once decided to teach women the alphabet, all other exclusive immunities of mankind were thrown open to her, and in due time pockets right side out and receptacle of the curtified out and receptacle of the curtified out and receptacle of the curtified side out and receptacle o rent impedimenta of immortal souls tions of colors.

would man be without pockets? An Old Editor's Experience.

Natchez Democrat. Here is a very truthful utterance from Frantz, of the Brandon Republican: Praise or "puff" a man in every issue of your paper for twenty years, and he will think you are among minnows in comparison with ordinary men, for his blubber.

The basque and lower skirt of mate once that he is not a Solomon, and he is your enemy for life.

> Washington County Canvass. Greenville Times.]

Mr. C. H. Smith, Chairman of our Coun The Good old Way.

A Very Able Speech.

A Very Able Speech.

I like Jefferson's way of insugaration; it suits our system. He rode alone on horse-tor, in what speaking and canvassing may be required prior to the November election.

A Very Able Speech.

A Very Able Speech.

I like Jefferson's way of insugaration; it suits our system. He rode alone on horse-tor, in what speaking and canvassing may be required prior to the November election.

AND ITS EFFECT UPON A NOVICE IN THE HANDS OF AN INITIATED YOUNG MAN.

The New Waltz

NUMBER 39

A recent letter to the New York Sun the reverse has been the case. Extem- from Long Branch says: "There was Chicago, Inh., Sept. 19 - The recent porizing will often be exposed to diffi-culties which only a very honest mind stay over Sunday, and the Saturday ladies of Galesburg to a colored man still can overcome and make the best of, night balls were large and gay at the sation in social circles. The young lady in When Father Taylor, the American principal hotels. Some of the waltzing question is Miss Nellie Chase. Her grandpreacher, once lost himself and became was of the new kind, in which the dan- father was the first Episcopal bishop of the bewildered in the course of his sermon, cers slide three times one way as fast and West, and her father was a candidate for he extricated himself by the exclama. far as their legs will let them, and then bishop of this diocese at the time the prehe extricated himself by the exclamation, "I have lost the track of the nominative case, my brethren, but one thing I know, I am bound for the king I know, I am bound for the known I know dom!" And the frankness of such a slide, sway and whirl exactly in unbson, sister, with whom she resides in Galesburg confession would be sure to save him or trouble comes. Take one of last is the wife of the Rev. G. H. Higging nified masters, it is very obvious, can-not deliver themselves in that way. and demonstrative. He was up in in that city. The negro to whom she was the new waltz, and eager for it. I wants five nearest Samuel Montoe, about The most singular instance of this kind in our memory is the case of a sedate. She could not waltz in the Higgins as coachman, and while acting in but once to our amazement and that of the denly sideways like a tremendously- evening the marriage took place. San congregation, having traveled through accelerated crab. Such was the ini-called at Miss Nellie's window, and she said, "I—I forget the third division!" with his muscular right arm, and grip-He turned around to the organist, "Or-ganist, strike up a verse." He gave measured off about half the width of out a line of a hymn, and while the organist was playing and the people singing, he leaned in deep thought over the pulpit; the singing over he announced the missing link. "But," said he, "is not that singular?" And he proceeded on the floor, in her struggles to regain him from his apparently happy bride to the to show how it was that he lost it, and equilibrium, and she hugged her partner Knox county jail for examination. The how he found it-proceeded in a really desperately. The sweet smile on her face young lady was taken charge of by her enchanting way to talk upon the law of gave place to an expression of annoy- mortified friends. A reporter called upon association of ideas and the mystery ance, and from that to terror. As the dusky lover at the jail, and found him and marvels of retentiveness and mem- for the young gentleman, he thought in a very happy turn of mind. On being ory as proof of the immateriality and it was thus far all right. Away questioned, he said: "I ham't got nothin to tell. I just loved the girl, and she love immortality of the soul until the time he went, three jumps in the conwas gone, and we really had no more trary direction. She accompanied him, the license at Monmouth. I didn't steal the A similar anecdote has often been bored itself into his shoulder, and then time ago. She threw it out of the window told of the late Thomas Binney. Dr. violently wiped itself obliquely across Harris, the author of "Mammon," had his shirt front; her hair caught in a begged his services for some anniversa- button of his coat, and was torn from told them that the satchel was here; but ry, and Binney declared his utter ina- its fastenings; a corset-steel parted with they would not listen, and dragged me away bility to prepare a sermon-in those an audible snap; a bouquet at her waist to jail without letting me say a word to days he was a strictly extempore speak- flew into many more pieces than it had her. I know what they want. They want

FASHION NOTES.

A pretty stuff for evening dresses is silk toweling. It should be combined with satin and trimmed with gauze.

The newest basque pattern is long that of self-control. In fact, it includes and square in front with a pocket on selected him to prepare the system of tactics obtain his manhood and the woman her which bears his name, and for a long time womanhood. The ability to identify of an ugly material, for it keeps it out regular rough-and-tumble light book which Underwaists of dotted foulard are

> The dainty kerchiefs which have one brocade grenadine.

find the frequent expression of my confidence and regard, especially in those relatrain. The excitement runs high, and it is A new idea is to take out the plain difficult to see what course affairs may take. this goal. The habit of self-control is wood panel in front of the tall standing but the accumulation of continued acts Dutch clock, and insert in its place one of self-denial for a worthy object; it is of embroidered silk, worked in some ar-

The materials most in vogue for ties you marry. the inclinations, of the sense of duty and kerchiefs and veils are highly ap-Erie canal. The commercial forces of seven most where he is best known.

Upon reaching the army after the battles around Atlanta I learned from Gen. Hardee this babit, who can govern himself infor they are so perishable, the articles

The rage for yellow has extended advantage.—Philadelphia Record. from bonnets and dresses to the outside of all real power and of all true of cottages, which at present should be coach knows how cream feels when it is in some shade of that color. The Queen being churned into butter. - Boston Trans

> For morning sacques there is nothing more becoming to all styles of woman- Plain calico is best for wash days. -Oil City kind than Veronese green surah. When Derrick. to this is added a green cashmere vest. There are 5,000 more words in the En-out trimming, will be the thing. But language than is all the others put together then they are to be lined throughout Boston Post. with plush, which is to be turned up at A German Life Insurance Company the lower edge and back at the wrists called Der Lebensversicherungsgeselische to form facings.

One of the predictions of a corresters.-Andrew's Queen. pondent of Harper's Bazar is a winter | In an Arkansas town, one Sunday, on dress of plain and plaid wool combined, clergyman prayed for rain and another to

The new stuffs covered with jet beads they dare not do: Not one of them day the rattle of the beads.

A stylish combination for the fall will be prominence this fait. It will be used in age recently, the younger was heard to such basques are short, and cut to form two eggs on sight.

shall be devised both to improve and All the recent dresses of whatever mate- over him.

and a woolen suit, in order to be stylish, must have only woolen seen on the outside, The basque and lower skirt of the dress of

TERMS OF ADVERTISING

One inch 1 00 2 00 3 00 4 00 5 00 15 00 20 0 Two in. 2 00 3 00 4 00 6 06 12 00 20 0 5 00 0 Three in. 3 00 5 00 7 00 9 00 15 00 25 00 00 0 Four in. 4 00 6 00 9 00 12 00 20 00 15 00 00 0 28 Special, or local notices, 20 cents per line

Fruits of Social Equality Teaching in the North.

A Distinguished Illinois Rector's Daughter Marries a Buck Negro and Gets Up and in a dreadful manner. Her nose satchel; her mother gave it to her a long here. Miss Chase, accompanied by her two brothers and brother-in-law, Rev. (4. 1) her brothers, resides. Miss Chase had scarcely been seated in the car when, to the changed, and Horace Chase drew a revol ver and shot at the retreating negro. The each side. It is cut in two points at ball missed its mark and struck Mr. George Crocker, a well known merchant, in the shoulder. Mr. Crocker was standing some short end and are worn with the other escaped unharmed. Horace Chase was fastened to the waist, are made of taken before the police court and parts bonds for his appearance next A good authority recommends very morning. Mesnroe, who had previously dark green dancing cloths instead of white for the reason that the former under bonds, was discharged to day, no one

A LITTLE FUN.

"September weddings are by some regarded the luckiest." That all depends on whom baby;" it is "our infanta," aw .- New York Ice cream merchants disapprove of this weather, but oystermen my it stew their

It is shocking form now to speak of "the

He who has ridden in a country stage-Embroidery is more stylish than lace for lish language than in the French, and yet For cloaks, next winter, surah with- more unclean things can be said in French > complains of the irregularity of the mails Yet one would suppose it got all of its let > dilemma by sending them an earthquak Boston Post, Women have cheek enough to wear men's hats on their heads, but there is one thing

An agricultural paper, in a discussion, says; "What is a corner in pork, anyway?" Well, the man who pickles the hams. Isn't he a corner in pork? A blonde woman in Wallack's elegan

"Did you ever see an oyster go up The Prince of Wales' two sons are Green is a color that will be brought into somewhat lively. While on a sea voytheatre, has been singing a song called dle and give us 'God Save Your Old

The husband who mysteriously disapriding him on a rail, instead of weeping adorn the attire of womenhood. What rial are made with shirred backs, short The Boston Transcript braced up the apron fronts and all around bodices. The skirt hangs straight at the back, and the shirring consists of from five to seven rows toothache, has a smile and a pleasant toothache, has a smile and a pleasant toothache, has a smile and a pleasant toothache. The fashion of wearing a silk lower skirt word for everybody he meets, may not

Ninety-Six Years Old.

Brookhaven Democrat.] Theoldest gentleman of my knowledge was last season are retained, the former being made long or short, according to the use for which they are designed. Some basques have long collarettes, ending in shirred pieces, which pass under the belt.

Theoldest gentleman of my knowledge was in attendance at Justice McDaniel's court, Franklin County, last Saturday, aged 50 years. He is the father of Dr. J. H. McDaniel. Who knows an older man?

The Good Old Way.